Zadání
At the beginning of the project, students will form their musical identity i.e. band, dj, rapper, the choice is theirs. Then, the group will write a song, and decide what kind of instrumentation and production techniques they need to create a quality recording. After practicing, students will record, mix and master their creation. The final production includes a music video, which consists of the recorded version of the song, actors, and a high quality video recording.
