Zadání
Refugee crisis around the world continues to be a major concern. Currently there are more than 80 million displaced people around the globe. To make a stand, students at EDUCAnet school Praha will create a theater play as part of the school's Freshmen Project. Through dance, song and movement, students will express their opinion on the current global refugee crisis and highlight the inequalities which migrant/refugee people undergo. Creating this production will give students a much clearer understanding of the given topic and it will give them the confidence to speak about it with their peers and in front of large assemblies of adults.
